RECOMMENDATIONS

#	Category	Information
1	Weather Conditions	Expect cold weather in mid-February in NYC, with temperatures often around 30-40°F (0-5°C). Snow is possible, so pack warm clothes like a heavy coat, scarves, and gloves.
2	Cultural Experience	Visit The Metropolitan Museum of Art or The American Museum of Natural History for a cultural immersion. These places provide a deep dive into art and history, typically less crowded on weekdays.
3	Partying Options	Explore nightlife in the Lower East Side or Williamsburg in Brooklyn, known for vibrant bars and music venues that cater to diverse musical tastes.
4	Affordable Accommodation	Consider booking a hostel or an Airbnb in neighborhoods like Astoria or Long Island City, which are generally more affordable and still relatively close to the University.
5	Public Transportation Tip	Purchase a MetroCard for easy access to subways and buses. It's cost-effective compared to rideshares if you're planning to explore different areas of the city.
6	Parking Advice	Parking in Manhattan is difficult and expensive. If driving is necessary, use parking apps to find and reserve spots, particularly in neighborhoods outside of Manhattan like Queens or Brooklyn.
7	Cultural Norms	Tipping is customary in NYC, often around 15-20% in restaurants and bars. It's also polite to tip at least a dollar per drink at bars.

8	Safety Tips	NYC is generally safe, but in crowded areas like Times Square, be mindful of pickpockets. Secure your belongings and be cautious with valuables.
9	Event Calendar	Check NYC's event calendar for parades or festivals post-Valentine's Day. Often, there are cultural events or pop-up markets worth exploring.
10	Free Activities	Consider walking across the Brooklyn Bridge or visiting Central Park, both offering iconic views and are free to access, great for those on a budget.
