RECOMMENDATIONS

#	Category	Information
1	Weather in February	Expect cold weather in New York City in mid-February with potential snow. Average temperatures range from 30°F to 45°F (-1°C to 7°C). Pack a warm coat, thermal layers, gloves, and a hat.

2	Affordable Accommodations	Consider staying in an Airbnb close to your friend's place near New York University. Hostels around the Greenwich Village area can be budget-friendly and are in proximity to cultural hotspots.
3	Local Transportation	Use a MetroCard for subway and buses. It's the most efficient way to get around the city and connect different attractions. Walking is also a practical option for exploring Manhattan.
4	Cultural Etiquette	In NYC, it's customary to tip service workers (15-20%). Be mindful of personal space, even in crowded areas. Locals appreciate direct and clear communication.
5	Energy-Efficient Practices	NYC supports eco-friendly initiatives. Use reusable bags while shopping and refill water bottles at public refill stations.
6	Entertainment Options	Explore NYC's nightlife with offerings like speakeasy bars and Broadway shows. Check out Times Square for outdoor lights and performers.
7	Safety Tips	NYC is generally safe, but always be vigilant of your surroundings, especially in crowded areas and on public transportation. Keep valuables secure.
8	Cultural Highlights	Visit iconic cultural institutions like the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the MoMA. Explore neighborhoods such as Chinatown and Little Italy for diverse cultural experiences.

9	Winter Events	Attend winter festivals and events such as the Lunar New Year parade and ice skating at Central Park. Check for any local events happening at Washington Square Park.
10	Packing Tips	Pack a waterproof jacket and comfortable waterproof shoes for unexpected rain or snow. Layer your clothing to adapt to indoor heating and outdoor cold.
