RECOMMENDATIONS

#	Category	Information
1	Weather Preparedness	February in London can be quite cold with an average temperature around 5°C (41°F). Pack warm clothing and waterproof layers, as rain is common.
2	Local Currency	London uses the British Pound (GBP). It's advisable to exchange some currency before you arrive or use UK ATMs for better rates.
3	Transport Tips	Consider using an Oyster Card or contactless payment for the best rates on London's extensive public transport network.
4	Airbnb Tips	When booking your Airbnb, ensure it is close to a tube station for easier mobility around the city, especially during your short stay.
5	Dining Scams	Beware of unlicensed street vendors selling overpriced snacks near tourist hotspots.
6	Emergency Contacts	In case of emergency, dial 999 for police, fire, or ambulance services in the UK.
7	Cultural Norms	In London, tipping around 10-15% in restaurants is customary if service charge isn't included.
8	Electrical Outlets	UK uses a three-pin plug with 230V voltage. You may need an adaptor for your devices.
9	Health Precautions	No specific vaccinations are required for travelers from the US; however, it's advisable to have travel health insurance.
10	Eco-Friendly Practices	Carry a reusable water bottle as London has many free water refilling stations.
